SALVUS adds additional funds and launches new website

SALVUS Master Trust has announced that it has added 16 additional funds to its investment range including Scot Eq Ethical, HSBC Amanah, M&G Recovery LGIM Pre Retirement, and M&G Property.

Managing Director of Goddard Perry Group, Steve Goddard said: “We have listened to feedback from a number of our SALVUS introducers and we are starting to see increased demand for additional fund choice especially for contractual members”. He added “The additional 16 funds will compliment our core fund offering to give members more choice which is vitally important if they have transferred to SALVUS from another Group PP/Stakeholder”.

SALVUS have also launched a new website which now provides helpful guides and online access to assessment tools where potential clients can test their data. Steve Goddard said: “Now we are entering the world of micro employers for AE many small employers want a straight-forward, easy to use system. We think that with guaranteed acceptance combined with our new online portal SALVUS delivers”. Visit www.salvustrust.com

In December 2014 SALVUS also announced the appointment of a new Corporate Trustee, Wragge Lawrence Graham & Co Trust Corporation Ltd.
