Press release

21 October 2013

HS Admin buys DBC Pension Services Ltd

HS Administrative Services Ltd, have today announced that they have acquired the entire share capital of third-party administrator, DBC Pension Services Ltd.

DBC were established in 1996 and are known for providing high quality administration services to the 10,000 members of their portfolio of DB & DC clients from their base in Sutton Coldfield in the West Midlands.

Graham Hickling, Managing Director of HS Admin said “I am delighted to announce the acquisition of DBC. The team at DBC are a credit to the business and their experience will both complement and add new expertise to our third party admin proposition.

This acquisition enhances our commitment to the TPA market and will strengthen our market position. DBC will also provide valuable capacity to assist with the administration of our AE Master Trust, SALVUS.”
